

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

That Will Please Most Men

Most men, old or young, think more about their pipes and cigars than any other luxury around the house. Give them some useful thing for their smoking outfit and you hit them in the right spot. Men who have been to College or those who admire a certain college, will appreciate our fine with Yale, Harvard, Stanford or California crests on them. Then we have handsome jars without crests for non-college men.

TOBACCO JARS

Ash trays made of copper and mounted on buckhorn are sure to please

WANTS OF HAWAII SHOWN BY CARTER

The following appropriations are recommended by Governor Carter in his annual report:

To continue the work of dredging the Honolulu harbor, a matter which is in the interest not only of the Territory, but of the entire American trans-Pacific commerce; for lighthouses, including the very much needed new front and rear range lights in Honolulu harbor, to afford better protection to commerce; under the Department of Justice, an appropriation for carrying out the desire of Congress in the condemnation of private fishing rights in Hawaii, and an increase in the appropriation to provide for two additional judges in the Supreme Court; for refusing to the Territory the sums expended between June 14, 1900, and December 30, 1904, for the maintenance of lighthouses, an expenditure which no other community in the United States has ever been obliged to undertake; also refunding to the Territory all expenditures during said period in dredging Honolulu harbor and providing for quarters for the Federal court in the Territorial building.

THE METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE CO
35 & 7 WEST 29th STREET NEW YORK

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND "UNCLE REMUS"

When President Roosevelt visited Atlanta, Ga., recently, he met among other notable men, Mr. Joel Chandler Harris, the author of the "Uncle Remus" stories now appearing exclusively in THE METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE. Mr. Roosevelt referred in warm terms to the pleasure he had received from the "Uncle Remus" tales, which pleasure, he said, he had shared with all his children.

"I am very fond of Uncle Remus. Presidents may come, and Presidents may go, but Uncle Remus stays put. Georgia has done a great many things for the Union, but she has never done more than when she gave Mr. Joel Chandler Harris to American literature.

"The best feature of my visit to Atlanta," continued the President, "was meeting Joel Chandler Harris at a luncheon party. By George, that was great! He is a wonderful man. I regard him as the greatest educator in the South along the lines in which he writes. One of the very pleasant memories of my Southern trip will have been my association with him."

Perhaps the best of the "Uncle Remus" stories appears in the December (Christmas) Number of THE METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE. It is amusingly illustrated by A. B. Frost. There are twenty other features in the same issue, including TWELVE PICTURES IN COLOR. The Christmas Metropolitan is for sale by all newsdealers and book-sellers at 15c. a copy. This fine magazine is given FREE to a new subscriber to the EVENING BULLETIN for six months at $4.00.
